

IOWA BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS

PRESS RELEASE

For release, August 26, 2003

Recently, the Iowa Board of Medical Examiners took the following action:

Sam Fayman, M.D., a 48 year-old physician formerly practicing in Burlington, Iowa, entered into a Settlement Agreement with the Board to resolve pending disciplinary charges. The Board filed charges against Dr. Fayman for providing inappropriate dermatological care and treatment to at least seven patients. Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Dr. Fayman was issued a Citation and Warning for concerns regarding record keeping and patient care provided in 1995 and 1996 and ordered to pay a $4,000 fine. Dr. Fayman was also ordered to attend at least 20 hours of continuing medical education in dermatology in each of the next two years and his practice in Iowa is subject to random patient care audits.
